HEATER WHERE LINCOLN WAS SHOT—W. J. FERGUSON, ACTOR, WHO SAW TRAGEDY.

W. J. Ferguson, the well known character actor, never tires of telling of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Ferguson was on the stage in Ford's theater, Washington, on the fateful night. He heard the assassin's shot ring out and barely dodged out of the path of Wilkes Booth when the latter sprang to the stage from the box and ran into the wings.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-paked sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk sitgling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchanting Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elvish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.
Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where-else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve. callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
For every visitor with a spare "go-ober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.
The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.
This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and h-ding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

York City.

George A. French of Chicago, who is a season guest at The Prince George, entertained the house guests there last evening with an exceeding clever negro dialect and monologue talk. He an expert along this line, and the guests heartily enjoyed his entertainment.
Mrs. Damon and Mrs. Butler, both of San Francisco, also added much to a delightful evening at The Prince George by reading the palms of the various guests. These ladies are professional palm readers, and will be pleased to have any one wishing their palms read to call upon them at The Prince George.

Woman.
Woman, the gentlest of all creatures is apt to become masterful and even tyrannical, this because she is a creature in whose composition emotion dominates, and emotion when highly stimulated becomes passion, and passion spurs all reasonable limitation and becomes tyrannical. Besides, there are women with more than ordinary firm will and persistent purpose. These when winged by the passion which is natural to the sex become intolerant, masterful and more tyrannical than men. Qualification to the intense action of the impassioned soul is treach-ery, and contradiction is treason. Like a stormy wind, they will have their sweep and ignore all contraries. And from this predominance of the emotional element it seems plain that, though woman may try many things and succeed in most, she is, with her normal outfit, materially incapacitated from being a statesman or a judge.— Daybook of John Stuart Blackie.

The State and the Individual.
The state may make it easy for a man to acquire a small holding, but it cannot give the man the energy, the industry, which are necessary if the boon is to be an abiding blessing to him. The state may help men over bad times, but it cannot give men the moral character which enables those who possess it by their energy, determination, industry, to place themselves beyond the reach of temporary disaster.—London Strand Magazine.

Partly So.
"Confess," he thundered, "you are another's!"
She shivered.
"Partially," she faltered. "This hair" —she pressed her hand to her brow—"and the upper teeth I wear are borrowed; the rest—yours."
